

San Joaquin County
could be in the orange tier next week thanks to a drop in its case rate.

Case rate/100K

4.8

Positivity rate

2.1%

Moving into the orange will come with fewer restrictions, but California is set to lift almost all distancing and capacity regulations on June 15 anyway. The state will also retire the tier system and allow fully vaccinated people to go unmasked, except in a few cases.

Full story at 209politics.com